Wednesday 26th April 2017, 8pm, Cork City Hall: OPENING GALA CONCERT – Verdi's Requiem

This year's Opening Gala Concert brings the world-renowned Verdi's Requiem to Cork with the Cork Fleischmann Symphony Orchestra. Verdi's Requiem, one of the most frequently performed major choral work, will be brought to life in Cork City Hall through the voices of Cara O'Sullivan (soprano), Raphaella Mangan (mezzo soprano), Owen Gilhooly (tenor), John Molloy (bass) and Festival Chorus comprised of East Cork Choral Society, Cór Cois Abhann and Cantairí Mhuscraí, conducted by Keith Pascoe.

Special discount price: €25.50/€21.25/€17 (€30/€25/€20 normally)

Thursday 27th April 2017, 8pm, Cork City Hall: The Swingles

For more than half a century, The Swingles have pushed the boundaries of vocal music. The seven young singers that make up today's London-based group are driven by the same innovative spirit that has defined the formation since their early days. At a time when a cappella music is more popular than ever, The Swingles are recognised as masters of their craft and will surely bring a wonderful energy to Cork City Hall. The Festival is delighted to have The Swingles bring to the 63rd Festival their creative arrangements that transport these well-loved songs into the group's unique and rich sound world. The results promise to be powerful and surprising!

Friday 28th April 2017, 7.30pm, St Fin Barre's Cathedral: Chamber Choir Ireland

Ireland's premier ensemble and Festival Choir-in-Residence, Chamber Choir Ireland, maintain their collaborative association with the Festival. Under its conductor Paul Hillier, CCI will present an exciting and unique programme including a newly commissioned work by David Fennessy. To go alongside this new work, CCI will perform the Lassus motet from which Fennessy bases his new work, together with works by Peter Maxwell Davies who died in 2016 leaving a not-insignificant contribution to choral music. The concert will also feature a premiere performance of the winning composition of the Seán Ó Riada Composition Competition.

Friday 28th April 2017, 10.30pm, Cathedral of St. Mary & St. Anne (North Cathedral): EVOCATIONS – New Dublin Voices

Evocations, our late night concert, noted for its sacred and reflective atmosphere presents New Dublin Voices, an award-winning chamber choir based in Dublin, Ireland, and founded by conductor Bernie Sherlock in October 2005. NDV, whose concerts range in style and period from the medieval to the contemporary, takes special pleasure in exploring the music of living composers and has given many Irish premières, as well as numerous world premières of works by Irish composers. New Dublin Voices will perform a serene and atmospheric programme as part of our Evocations concert.

Saturday 29th April 2017, 3pm/8pm, Cork City Hall: Fleischmann International Gala

Afternoon and evening concerts offer audiences the opportunity of hearing some of the world's top amateur choirs compete for the Fleischmann International Trophy; one of the most prestigious choral prizes in Europe. Judged by a panel of eminent musicians and choral experts, the competition is presented in a concert format and features music from Renaissance to contemporary and compositions from each choir's home country. A real opportunity for audiences to discover a range of interesting music sung to a very high standard. Special discount price: €21.25/€17/ €12.75 (€25/€20/€15 normally)

Sunday 30th April 2017, 8pm, Cork City Hall: Closing Gala Concert

International choirs present choral music representative of their musical and ethnic backgrounds in a celebratory final concert. The week draws to a close, and our international choirs mark the end of a superb festival with a joyful and colourful celebration of song, with a few surprises!

Special discount price: €25.50/€21.25/€17 (€30/€25/€20 normally)
